Dear HR Manager:

This letter is to express my extreme interest in your posting on careers.blizzard.com for an Associate Software Engineer, Engineering Systems. As an incoming new grad with Bachelor's and Master's degree in computer science, numerous of project experiences and a variety of technical skills enabling me to efficiently implement software application, troubleshoot and solve problems, I am confident I will be a desired candidate for your posting position.

As a geek in technologies, I admire creative and outstanding things which are created by computers. I am a big fan of Blizzard games because the fancy graphics and enjoyable gameplays always attract me to wonder how these spectacular masterpieces are created. For this reason, I am dreaming to work for Blizzard to blend in the culture of Blizzard, to be a part of a group that creates masterpieces, and to wear Blizzard shirt and show people I am an engineer in Blizzard Entertainment.

I am keen to develop software applications that apply software design patterns because I enjoy the elegance and beauty of the code which makes everybody's life easier to maintain or continue to work on it. Also, I am passionate to learn new technologies to solve problems in more efficient and elegant ways. I think these are the keys for my success in your organization.

Your listed requirements closely match my background and skills. A few I would like to highlight that would enable me to contribute to your bottom line are:

- Abundant experience in MVC, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, JQuery
- Good understanding of AJAX, JSON, Node.js
- Thorough understanding of Object-Oriented concepts
- Experienced in developing a software application in Agile methodology
- Good understanding of Network technologies (protocols, services)

I can be reached anytime via my cell phone, 317-476-2422 or via email at cao104@purdue.edu . Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to speaking with you about this opportunity.

Sincerely,

Zhihao Cao
